Dear Ma'am/Sir,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior Graphic Designer or Junior Web Developer position and to share my enthusiasm for joining your dynamic team.

Having spent several years as an experienced hospitality professional, I have developed a deep understanding of customer service, effective communication, and creative problem-solving. As the hospitality industry constantly adapts to meet the needs of its customers, I have honed my ability to thrive in a rapidly evolving environment. Now, I am eager to channel that adaptability into a new challenge.

My desire to learn and my passion for technology have driven me to embark on this career transition. As I immerse myself in the world of design and development, I have knowledge in various programs, including HTML, CSS, Bootstrap and JavaScript. Additionally, I am expanding my skills and knowledge in graphic design covering Adobe Suite CC: Illustrator, Photoshop, Premier Pro, Adobe XD and After Effects because it will help me to be an successful designer or developer with this tools.

I believe my transferable skills from the hospitality industry, such as customer-focused thinking, strong attention to detail, and quick adaptability, will prove to be valuable assets in your company. I am confident in my ability to swiftly learn new graphic design software and programme languages, and I am committed to continuous professional development to stay at the forefront of the ever-changing designing or developing landscape.

Working with a team that values innovation and user-centric design is a prospect that excites me greatly. I am eager to apply my existing skills and experiences to contribute to the exciting world of development and design. The opportunity to collaborate with like-minded individuals to craft digital experiences that leave a lasting impression is something I am genuinely passionate about.

I firmly believe that my dedication, drive, and positive attitude will enable me to excel in the field of junior graphic design or junior web developer. I am excited about the possibilities this career path presents and am eager to make a meaningful contribution to your team and the projects you undertake.

Thank you for considering my application. I would be delighted to discuss further how my skills and passion align with your company's goals during an interview. Please find my resume attached for your reference.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Tefanny Young
